Afternoon Reception.

One of the largest and most beautifully appointed afternoon receptions given in several seasons was given last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. O. L. Dennes at her pretty home on Bixby avenue.

The afternoon was an ideal fall one, the atmosphere was just cool enough to fill one with its vim and vigor, and the Dennes home was indeed a beautiful spot, with its woodland decorations, Great festoons of autumn vines with red and yellow berries were banded gracefully over the mantels and openings. A pretty profusion of yellow chrysanthemums lent a charming note to the scheme of decoration, with here and there pot plants and ferns.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. A. C. Strachley, Mrs. H. A. Ledbetter, and Mrs. J. W. Potter, who introduced the receiving line, in which stood Meses. O. L. Dennes, Lute Johnson, J. W. Godwin, Garnett Johnson, A. G. Gardella, J. S. Garrett, Miss Mary Anderson and Miss Lillian Krauss of Kaufman, Tex.

Mrs. Harold Wallace directed the guests to the dining room, where a delicious salad course was served by Meses. Pauline Dennes, Marguerite Hyden, Grace Johnson, Jeanette Moore, and Grace Scivally.

Mrs. E. B. Pugh, Mrs. Richard Mc-Lish and Mrs. Chivers directed to the punch bowl, where Mrs. Joe Cooper served.

Miss Ozella Pugh was in charge of the guests' register. Little Miss Louise Johnson received the cards.
